

Announcing SMDM-AHRQ Speaker Travel Awards!

SMDM will be awarding four junior and mid-level researchers with up to $500 each to reimburse travel to the Agency for Healthcare Research and Quality (AHRQ) to present their health policy relevant research.

These awards are intended to facilitate junior and mid-level SMDM members to take advantage of an exciting opportunity to present their research and allow for direct interaction with the leadership and project officers at AHRQ.

Eligible applicants are junior and mid-level SMDM members working on novel approaches to answer public health and health care policy questions.

Each award will be for up to $500, to be used for reimbursement of travel and lodging expenses.

Applicants must be available to travel to AHRQ on a scheduled Thursday between February 2012 and May 2012.

If interested, please submit a 1-2 paragraph abstract describing your research to: Negin.Hajizadeh@nyumc.org

Application deadline is February 14th 2012.
