What our Members are Saying

“After 30 years, the world has caught up with what people in SMDM have been doing all along.”

MARK ROBERTS, MD, MPP
UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH

“From a technical perspective, solving problems requires both an open mind and sharp skills. The rigorous and multidisciplinary approach of SMDM has helped me expand my toolset for solving important and interesting problems.”

JAMES STAHL, MD, CM, MPH
MGH-INST. FOR TECHNOLOGY ASSESSMENT

“My career was jump-started by writing papers with people I met at SMDM.”

SEEMA SONNAD, PhD
UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

“When I am reviewing a resume, I look to see if the applicant is a member of SMDM. I know that if he or she is a member, they have been exposed to the broad spectrum of rigorous methods that are critical to answering today's challenges.”

NEWELL MCELWEE, PharmD, MSPH,
PFIZER, INC.

“To me, SMDM is truly my professional home; I particularly value the international character of the Society.”

ANNE STIGGELBOUT, PhD
LEIDEN UNIVERSITY, THE NETHERLANDS

“While my research is more methodological, I fully appreciate the exposure to clinical applications I get at SMDM.”

HEATHER TAFFET GOLD, PhD
WEILL CORNELL MEDICAL COLLEGE
